WHAT IS THE MORTON GROVE BLOCK PARTY KIT?

The Morton Grove Block Party Kit is an easy how-to guide to organizing a neighborhood block party in the Village of Morton Grove. The resource kit includes everything you need to plan and execute a successful block party with step-by-step information and a collection of printable resources. The kit was compiled by the Morton Grove Community Relations Commission and Village staff.

REASONS TO HAVE A BLOCK PARTY

Morton Grove is a community of neighbors, and block parties are an opportunity for neighbors to come together to connect, have fun, and strengthen community ties. Why should your neighborhood host a block party?

- To have fun
- To meet your neighbors and make new friends
- To re-establish old friendships
- To build community and increase the sense of community belonging
- To encourage neighbors to look after one another and the neighborhood
- To promote safety and prevent crime by being able to recognize faces
- To learn about the community and its history

5. SEND INVITATION

Create a block party invitation or fill out the sample Block Party Invitation and make photocopies. Distribute the invitation to all households at least 3 weeks prior to the event. Decide early and make it clear in the invitation if the block party will be restricted to those who live in the household or if people can invite friends and relatives.

Be sure to include the event date and time, the exact location, how to submit an RSVP, and contact information for questions. We recommend asking that neighbors provide an email address or phone number with the RSVP to help communicate event details and changes. The invitation could also include a schedule of activities and a request for supplies, food items, or volunteer time.

6. PLAN ACTIVITIES

The organizing committee may want to plan a few activities to keep neighbors of all ages engaged throughout the day. Activity suggestions are included in Block Party Activities. The activity schedule can be included in the invitation or distributed the week of the event.

7. ORGANIZE SUPPLIES

It will be important to determine who is bringing what before the day of the event. Supplies may include chairs, tables, tents, grills, coolers, plates, cups, cutlery garbage cans, a music player, decorations, and activity supplies. Participating households may be asked to bring certain items in the invitation or closer to the day of the event. A list of common block party supplies is included in the Block Party Checklist.

8. PLAN SET-UP & CLEAN-UP

The organizing committee should establish day-of responsibilities for committee members and anyone else who has volunteered their time to help the day of the event. Plan for at least 2 people to manage the event set-up and for at least 2 different people to manage the event clean-up. To-do lists for the block party set-up and clean-up are included in the Block Party Checklist.

MAKING EVERYONE FEEL WELCOME

- It could be the first block party for some of your neighbors. In order to make everyone feel welcome and communicate clearly the purpose of a block party, it may be helpful to knock on the door of a new neighbor and invite them in-person. If language is a barrier, bring along someone who speaks their language.
- Some neighbors may be shy or may not know how to participate. Make an extra effort to extend the invitation, but do not be forceful or offended if someone does not choose to participate.
- Be mindful of cultural or religious diet or activity constraints.
- Ask everyone to label their food and list ingredients as a courtesy to neighbors with allergies and diet restrictions.
- Make activities accessible to those with limited English language skills.
- Consider asking attendees to bring a dish to share that represents their culture or ethnic background as a way for everyone to learn more about their neighbors and celebrate Morton Grove's diversity.

BLOCK PARTY DOs & DON'Ts

DO

- Delegate block party planning, set-up, and clean-up duties to avoid stress and encourage collaboration between neighbors.
- Collect money as a required or suggested donation to cover the cost of shared supplies, such as activity items, ice, dishware, cutlery, food, and soft drinks.
- Post NO PARKING notice signs the day before to remind neighbors that on-street parking will be restricted the day of the block party.
- Consider setting a block party theme.
- Prioritize the safety of attendees and first responders. Minimize tripping hazards and ensure adequate hydrant and emergency vehicle access, as outlined in the Block Party Permit Application.
- Try to centralize the location of the event activities on a block. If the party location is perceived to be too far from home, people may not attend or might feel they're not comfortable at the opposite end of the street.
- Set clear limits to prevent the block party from getting out of hand or from becoming a nuisance. Make it clear who is invited to attend, whether pets are allowed, which yards are open for activity, and when the party needs to wrap up. The Village requires all block party activities taking place within any portion of the public right-of-way to end no later than 10:00pm.
- Be inclusive, take the opportunity to connect with your neighbors, and have fun!

DON'T

- Be overly ambitious. Not every single moment of a block party has to be jam-packed with excitement and distraction. Let neighbors interact, give kids some space for unstructured play, and make sure everyone has ample time to enjoy the amazing food. When it comes to throwing a successful block party, less can be more.
- Leave any party supplies or refuse in the public right-of-way, parkways, alleys, or adjacent public lands at the conclusion of the block party.
- Sell alcoholic beverages, drink alcoholic beverages in the public right-of-way outside of the block party confines, drink alcoholic beverages in any motor vehicle, or serve alcoholic beverages to anyone younger than 21.
- Create noise that exceeds the Noise Control Ordinance or play live or amplified music without submitting a Live & Amplified Music Permit Request Form for Village approval.
- Violate any Village, Cook County, State of Illinois, or federal laws and policies.
