OMG! Grill celebrated its one-year anniversary on June 26, 2021. This is a remarkable achievement for any restaurant, and especially so for one that opened its doors in the midst of a global pandemic. Such success is owed to the commitment of the business's owner and staff, who simply serve up great food at reasonable prices.

OMG! Grill is located in the heart of Morton Grove's Dempster Street commercial corridor. The colorful storefront is situated on the south side of Dempster Street between Meade and Austin Avenues. The restaurant is open every day of the week for lunch, dinner, and late-night offerings. Customers can dine in the modernized storefront, pick up meals, and order delivery through Postmates, Uber Eats, Doordash, and Grubhub.

Owner Azhar Malik says the restaurant is well-known for its 100% Zabihah Halal certified meats, which are served in dishes ranging from Philly steak sandwiches to pizza. The restaurant offers a variety of menu items to satisfy every taste, including salads, cheeseburgers, burritos, fried chicken, paratha rolls, and desserts. A kid-friendly menu provides

From day one, OMG! Grill has been active in the Morton Grove community. In September 2020, the restaurant warmly welcomed Mayor DiMaria, Trustees, Village staff, and Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce leadership to a celebratory ribbon cutting and menu tasting. The restaurant is a sponsor of the Midwest Cricket Conference and always keeps the players well-fed at matches. Mr. Malik is proud that his number-one client is Morton Grove's Muslim Community Center (MCC), where his pizzas are a must for parties and other events. The restaurant also supports local schools with school appreciation nights, when twenty percent of the value of each order placed is donated to a specific school.
